The marginally noted inam lands belonging to the Hanumantha Devaru temple of Devagondanahalli village in the Hassan Taluk were resumed during the Inam Settlement in 1880 on account of the then disrepaired state of the institution.

2. The devotees have since repaired the temple thoroughly and have executed a Muchalika on stamped paper, binding themselves to keep the temple in a state of good

-orship therein regularly.

The inam lands resumed still remain waste and the Deputy Commissioner recommends their restoration to the temple.

4. In the Inam Register relating to the resumption of the lands in question, the Inam Assistant at the time of the Settlement has recorded a remark that subject to the repairs being executed, the inam lands may be confirmed to the temple on half quit-rent Rs 1-2-7 plus Jodi Rs 2-14-7 or Rs 4.

The Inam Superintendent

whose opinion was as to the amount Jodi that will be imposed on the la should their restorati be sanctioned by Govern -ment, reports in reply, that the Jodi will be fixed at Rs 4 as recorde in the Jama Register.

The devotees have also agreed to pay this Jodi to Government regularly.

From the papers
read above it is observed that the lands in question were formerly attached as Inam to the temple of Hanumantha Devaru
at Devagondanahalli village, Hassan Taluk but were resumed to Govt during the Inam Settlement in 1880 on account of the then disreputed State of the Institution.

I Dy Comm^r

now reports that the temple has since been thoroughly repaired by the devotees and the Puja Services therein regularly conducted and consequently recommends the restoration of the resumed Inam to the Temple. The lands in question still remain waste and the devotees have executed a muchalika binding themselves to maintain the temple in good condition in future and further to pay to Govt. regularly the ~~jodi~~ Cowlmo. Quit & rents of Rs 4. imposable thereon.

3. In these circumstances the Govt are pleased to sanction the lands referred to above as drawn to the Temple of Hanuman Devaru in question, subject to the payment of a combined quit-rent of Rs 4. as explained by the Inam Superintendent
